WAWEL CUP SPRING EDITION

Wawel Spring Cup is planned to coincide with the upcoming CEYOC. The event will be organized by the team well-known for the Wawel Cup Summer edition. We hope that skills and experience gained in the past 40 years will help us to prepare for you a professional high-level competition.

This year we want to invite you to challenge your orienteering skills in Polish Jura twice: during the Spring edition and Summer edition. During the Spring edition we will put emphasis on all technical aspects. With detailed maps, demanding courses and diversified terrains we want you to live an ultimate orienteering challenge. Let's get off to a good start into this season!

COMPETITION SCHEDULE

1.04.2022	1st STAGE	Olkusz	SPRINT DISTANCE
2.04.2022	2nd STAGE	Rodaki	MIDDLE DISTANCE
3.04.2022	3rd STAGE	Ogrodzieniec Krępa	MIDDLE DISTANCE

1 STAGE

ATTRACTIVE OLD TOWN

1.04.2022 / OLKUSZ
SPRINT DISTANCE

We will start our 2022 competition with a race held in the heart of Olkusz – a city well-known so far only for its deep Pits. This time Olkusz invites us into a typical Polish old town for a run in a maze of irregular developed buildings. Demanding courses will be planned by past year Polish Championships course planner. High quality is warranted.

2 STAGE

JURRASIC ROCKS

2.04.2022 / RODAKI
MIDDLE DISTANCE

Wawel Cup brand is strongly associated with races in rocky terrains. Therefore the Spring edition cannot miss typical Jurassic rock formations, cliffs and rock pillars. The runnability and visibility are both perfect and strongly impeded by dense vegetation. There is only moderate elevation. It's time to challenge your technical skills at the beginning of the season!

3 STAGE

FAST BUT PRECISE

3.04.2021 / OGRODZIENIEC KRĘPA
MIDDLE DISTANCE

The third day of the Wawel Spring Cup provides an opportunity to verify further navigational skills. The courses will be held in a terrain with only little elevation but lots of thickets and clearings. Full speed and sharp eye is a relay must-have if you want to win!
